

Voir les Newsletters précédentes...

Centre d'Etudes de l'Ethnicité et des Migrations

Juillet 2021

LA NEWSLETTER DU CEDEM

EDITORIAL: CEDEM WILL BECOME THE NEW COORDINATING INSTITUTE OF IMISCOE

-English below-

Nous avons le plaisir d'annoncer qu'à compter du 1er avril 2022, le CEDEM deviendra l'institut coordinateur d'IMISCOE, le plus grand réseau interdisciplinaire d'Europe dans le domaine des études sur les migrations et la diversité.

Le directeur de l'IMISCOE, Prof Peter Scholten de l'Université Erasmus de Rotterdam, passera le relais au Prof Jean-Michel Lafleur et Dr Daniela Vintila du CEDEM, pour inaugurer une nouvelle étape pour ce réseau de recherche en pleine croissance. Lisez ici l'interview de Jean-Michel Lafleur et Daniela Vintila, dans lequel ils discutent de l'avenir de la communauté IMISCOE.

Le directeur du CEDEM Prof Marco Martiniello a réagi à cette désignation en ces termes : Le CEDEM est l'un des membres fondateurs de l'IMISCOE. Nos chercheurs ont assumé plusieurs rôles dans le réseau (dans le comité exécutif, le comité financier, le comité éditorial, plusieurs comités permanents, etc.). Diriger IMISCOE à partir d'avril 2022 est une étape logique qui démontre l'engagement du CEDEM envers le réseau. Durant son mandat, le CEDEM entend garantir la pérennité d'IMISCOE mais aussi adapter l'institution aux transformations qui se sont accélérées ces derniers mois.

PARTICIPATION DU CEDEM A LA CONFERENCE ANNUELLE IMISCOE

Les membres du CEDEM participeront activement cette année à la Conférence Annuelle IMISCOE « Crossing borders, connecting cultures ».

Notre activité dans les Comités Permanents de l'IMISCOE

Le Comité Permanent Superdiversity, Migration and Cultural Change (DIVCULT) coordonné par Marco Martiniello organisera plus de 20 panels et workshops lors de la conférence annuelle IMISCOE 2021. Pour plus de détails, consultez le programme de la conférence.

Le Comité Permanent Migration, Citizenship and Political Participation (MIGCITPOL) co-coordonnée par Daniela Vintila (CEDEM) organisera plus de 20 panels et workshops lors de la conférence annuelle IMISCOE 2021. Pour plus de détails, consultez le programme de la conférence.

Notre rôle dans l'organisation des panels et des ateliers IMISCOE

Marco Martiniello présidera les panels « Changing Cultures: Arts and culture as agents and means of change in migration societies; Session 1: theoretical and methodological considerations » (08/07, 08h00-09h30) et « Cultural Ritualized City Events and the Inclusion of Newcomers » (09/07, 08h00-09h30).

Daniela Vintila et Jean-Michel Lafleur organiseront le workshop « The Social Rights of Emigrants and Immigrants in European Welfare States » (08/07, 16h30-18h00).

Hassan Boussetta, Marco Martiniello et Daniela Vintila organiseront le workshop « Conceptual and theoretical questions about superdiversity in citizenship and migration studies » (09/07, 15h30-17h00).

Elsa Mescoli co-présidera le panel « Inequalities and the arts » (08/07, 14h45-16h15).

Anastasia Bermudez co-présidera le panel « Following 'Latino' migrants through the Americas and Europe: (not)crossing borders amidst growing inequalities » (08/07, 16h30-18h00).

La participation de nos chercheurs aux panels et ateliers IMISCOE

Marco Martiniello participera aux ateliers « Connecting cultures, negotiating heritages : The role of cultural heritage in migrants' integration and social cohesion » (07/07, 15h45-17h15) et « Superdiversity Challenging Higher Education : A « UNIC » Approach for Societal Impact » (08/07, 14h45-16h15).

Daniela Vintila présentera son papier « Spanish Diaspora's Turnout and Party Preferences : Recent Patterns and Challenges of Transnational Political Engagement » lors du panel « Transnational Citizenship and Migrant Political Participation : Concepts and Practices » (08/07, 9h30-11h00).

Angeliki Konstantinidou participera à l'atelier « The Social Rights of Emigrants and Immigrants in European Welfare States » (08/07, 16h30-18h00).

Alissia Raziano et Shannon Damery présenteront leur papier « The impact of COVID 19 and hybrid education on the new measures for inclusive education in Belgium » lors du panel « Education & Social Inequality 6 » (08/07, 16h30-18h00).

Axel Gossiaux présentera son papier « Institutionalizing hip-hop arts and culture in French-speaking Belgium : Challenging and perpetuating some inequalities ? » lors du panel « Inequalities and the arts » (08/07, 14h45-16h15).

Félien de Heusch, Carole Wenger et Jean-Michel Lafleur présenteront leur papier « A right for body repatriation ? Comparing Senegalese and Tunisian migrants and States' engagement around death during the pandemic » lors du panel « Older migrants in times of COVID-19 » (09/07, 08h00-09h30).

Carole Wenger présentera son papier « Transnational healthcare arrangements of Tunisian migrants in Europe : Diasporic medical returns and community-based responses during the pandemic » lors du panel « Migrant Legal Status and Access to Healthcare : Reconsidering Vulnerability and Surveillance : SESSION 2 » (09/07, 13h45-15h15).

Alice Clarebout présentera son papier « Intercultural urban walks guided by immigrant people » lors du panel « Cultural Ritualized city Events and the Inclusion of Newcomers » (09/07, 08h00-09h30).

Anastasia Bermudez présentera son papier « Crossing different borders in contexts of growing inequalities : Latin American-migrant origin citizens remigrating within Europe » lors du panel « Following 'Latino' migrants through the Americas and Europe: (not)crossing borders amidst growing inequalities » (08/07, 16h30-18h00). Elle participera également à l'atelier « Conceptual and theoretical questions about superdiversity in citizenship and migration studies » (09/07, 15h30-17h00).

NEWS & ÉVÉNEMENTS À VENIR

Alice Clarebout et Shannon Damery présenteront leur travail sur le projet UNIC au congrès 2021 de l'association suisse de sociologie – Social Justice in Times of Uncertainty, 28-30 juin 2021. La présentation est intitulée « Migrant associations as a springboard for the inclusion of newcomers: the cases of two Belgian cities ».

Daniela Vintila Daniela Vintila et Angeliki Konstantinidou participeront au 26e Congrès mondial de science politique (en ligne). Elles présideront les panels « Citizenship and Mobility in the EU: Policies and Practices » et « Mobility and Social Protection in the European Union: Welfare States under Pressure ».

Daniela Vintila et Angeliki Konstantinidou participeront à la Conférence Générale de l'ECPR 2021 (en ligne). Daniela Vintila présidera la section « International Migration: Challenges for Politics, Governance, and Society », tandis qu'Angeliki Konstantinidou présidera le panel « Mobility and Welfare Responses in Times of COVID-19 ».

Félien de Heusch, Carole Wenger et Jean-Michel Lafleur présenteront leur papier « Vers un (dés)engagement pour le droit au rapatriement des corps : migrants sénégalais, tunisiens et États d'origine pendant la pandémie », à la 18e Conférence de l'ARIC, Université Côte d'Azur, Nice, 26-29 octobre 2021.

ÉVÉNEMENTS PASSÉS

Du 28/06/2021 au 03/07/2021, Hassan Boussetta a enseigné à l'école d'été EuromedMig « Mediterranean Migration Studies : Theoretical and Empirical Research Agenda » à l'Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelone, Espagne.

Le 25/06/2021, Nives Mazur Kumric a présenté son papier « Brexit – An Inquiry into the Socioeconomic Aftereffects from an International and European Perspective » à la Conférence sur le Droit Comparé et International.

Le 22/06/2021, Marco Martiniello a participé à la session plénière du Parlement Francophone de Bruxelles sur les auditions relatives à la résolution sur les droits fondamentaux des personnes d'ascendance africaine en Europe, telle qu'adoptée par le Parlement européen en sa séance plénière du 26 mars 2019, sous l'angle de la Cohésion sociale.

Le 18/06/2021, lancement du livre « Family Practices in Migration : Everyday Lives and Relationships ». Shannon Damery a contribué avec un chapitre intitulé « Home without family, family without home: Young migrants' experience of home and Relationships in the city of Brussels ».

Le 17/06/2021, Axel Gossiaux a eu une conversation avec l'artiste peintre Robin Bodéüs autour du graffiti, du street art et des éléments hip-hop dans le cadre de l'événement Talking Back: Hip Hop Through Research and Practice (Coventry University).

Le 15/06/2021, Hassan Boussetta a participé en tant que membre du jury de thèse de Mme Luisa Faustini à l'Université Pompeu Fabra de Barcelone. Thèse intitulée « The Nexus Between EU External Migration Policies and the Democratization of Southern Mediterranean Countries. A multi-layered analysis with Morocco as a case study ».

NOUVELLES CONCERNANT LA RECHERCHE ET LES PROJETS DU CEDEM

Premier livrable de l'Université européenne des villes post-industrielles (UNIC) « Superdiversity in Higher Education Settings : A State-of-the-Art Report ». Publié en ligne ici.

Hassan Boussetta a été nommé membre du conseil d'administration de l'ABSP et délégué de l'ABSP au conseil d'administration de l'Association internationale de science politique Nives Mazur Kumric a été officiellement inclus dans le pool d'experts juridiques et chercheurs qui contribueront au projet « DG HOME Legal Compliance Assessment and Legal Consultancy Studies in the Area of Migration and Home Affairs (HOME-2020-AMIF-PR-LECO-0001) ». Nives sera chargé de préparer les évaluations et les études de conformité légale.

-English Version-

EDITORIAL: CEDEM WILL BECOME THE NEW COORDINATING INSTITUTE OF IMISCOE

We are delighted to announce that, as of 1st of April 2022, CEDEM will become the new coordinating institute of IMISCOE, Europe largest interdisciplinary network in the field of migration and diversity studies.

IMISCOE Director Prof. Peter Scholten of Erasmus University Rotterdam will pass the baton on to new Director Prof. Jean-Michel Lafleur and new Senior Network Officer Dr. Daniela Vintila at CEDEM to inaugurate an exciting new era for this growing research network. Read here the interview with Jean-Michel Lafleur and Daniela Vintila, in which they discuss about the future of the IMISCOE Community.

CEDEM Director Prof. Marco Martiniello reflected on this outcome: CEDEM is one of the founding members of IMISCOE. It has over the years filled in most positions in the network (executive board, financial committee, editorial Committee, standing committee coordinator, training committee, etc.). Leading IMISCOE from April 2022 is the next logical step that demonstrates the longstanding commitment of CEDEM to the network. The CEDEM leadership will also guarantee the continuity of IMISCOE but also its adaptability to changing conditions.

CEDEM'S PARTICIPATION AT THE IMISCOE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

CEDEM's members will be actively participating in different roles at the 2021 IMISCOE Annual Conference "Crossing borders, connecting cultures".

Our activity in IMISCOE Standing Committees

The Standing Committee Superdiversity, Migration and Cultural Change (DIVCULT) coordinated by Marco Martiniello will organise more than 20 panels and workshops during the 2021 IMISCOE Annual Conference. For more details, see the conference programme.

The Standing Committee Migration, Citizenship and Political Participation (MIGCITPOL) co-coordinated by Daniela Vintila will organise more than 20 panels and workshops during the 2021 IMISCOE Annual Conference. For more details, see the conference programme.

Our role in organizing IMISCOE Panels and Workshops

Marco Martiniello will chair the Panels "Changing Cultures: Arts and culture as agents and means of change in migration societies; Session 1: theoretical and methodological considerations" (08/07, 08:00-09:30) and "Cultural Ritualized City Events and the Inclusion of Newcomers" (09/07, 08:00-09:30).

Daniela Vintila and Jean-Michel Lafleur will organize the Workshop "The Social Rights of Emigrants and Immigrants in European Welfare States" (08/07, 16:30-18:00).

Hassan Bousetta, Marco Martiniello and Daniela Vintila will organize the Workshop "Conceptual and theoretical questions about superdiversity in citizenship and migration studies" (09/07, 15:30-17:00).

Elsa Mescoli will co-chair the panel "Inequalities and the arts" (08/07, 14:45-16:15).

Anastasia Bermudez will co-chair the panel "Following 'Latino' migrants through the Americas and Europe: \(not\)crossing borders amidst growing inequalities" (08/07, 16:30-18:00).

The participation of our researchers in IMISCOE Panels and Workshops

Marco Martiniello will participate in the Workshops "Connecting cultures, negotiating heritages: The role of cultural heritage in migrants' integration and social cohesion" (07/07, 15:45-17:15) and "Superdiversity Challenging Higher Education: A "UNIC" Approach for Societal Impact" (08/07, 14:45-16:15).

Daniela Vintila will present her co-authored paper "Spanish Diaspora's Turnout and Party Preferences: Recent Patterns and Challenges of Transnational Political Engagement" in the Panel "Transnational Citizenship and Migrant Political Participation: Concepts and Practices" (08/07, 9:30-11:00).

Angeliki Konstantinidou will participate in the Workshop "The Social Rights of Emigrants and Immigrants in European Welfare States" (08/07, 16:30-18:00).

Alissia Raziano and Shannon Damery will present their paper "The impact of COVID 19 and hybrid education on the new measures for inclusive education in Belgium" in the Panel "Education & Social Inequality 6" (08/07, 16:30-18:00).

Axel Gossiaux will present his paper "Institutionalizing hip-hop arts and culture in French-speaking Belgium: Challenging and perpetuating some inequalities?" in the Panel "Inequalities and the arts" (08/07, 14:45-16:15).

Félicien de Heusch, Carole Wenger and Jean-Michel Lafleur will present their paper "A right for body repatriation? Comparing Senegalese and Tunisian migrants and States' engagement around death during the pandemic" in the Panel "Older migrants in times of COVID-19" (09/07, 08:00-09:30).

Carole Wenger will present her paper "Transnational healthcare arrangements of Tunisian migrants in Europe: Diasporic medical returns and community-based responses during the pandemic" in the Panel "Migrant Legal Status and Access to Healthcare: Reconsidering Vulnerability and Surveillance: SESSION 2" (09/07, 13:45-15:15).

Alice Clarebout will present her paper "Intercultural urban walks guided by immigrant people" in the Panel "Cultural Ritualized city Events and the Inclusion of Newcomers" (09/07, 08:00-09:30).

Anastasia Bermudez will present her co-authored paper "Crossing different borders in contexts of growing inequalities: Latin American-migrant origin citizens remigrating within Europe" in the Panel "Following 'Latino' migrants through the Americas and Europe: (not)crossing borders amidst growing inequalities" (08/07, 16:30-18:00). She will also participate in the workshop "Conceptual and theoretical questions about superdiversity in citizenship and migration studies" (09/07, 15:30-17:00).

NEWS & FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Alice Clarebout and Shannon Damery will present their work on the UNIC project at the 2021 congress of the Swiss sociological association – Social Justice in Times of Uncertainty, June 28-30 2021. The presentation is entitled "Migrant associations as a springboard for the inclusion of newcomers: the cases of two Belgian cities".

Daniela Vintila and Angeliki Konstantinidou will participate at the 26th World Congress of Political Science (online). They will co-chair the Panels "Citizenship and Mobility in the EU: Policies and Practices" and "Mobility and Social Protection in the European Union: Welfare States under Pressure".

Daniela Vintila and Angeliki Konstantinidou will participate at the 2021 ECPR General Conference (online). Daniela Vintila will chair the Section "International Migration: Challenges for Politics, Governance, and Society", while Angeliki Konstantinidou will chair the Panel "Mobility and Welfare Responses in Times of COVID-19".

Félicien de Heusch, Carole Wenger and Jean-Michel Lafleur will present their paper "Vers un (dés)engagement pour le droit au rapatriement des corps : migrants sénégalais, tunisiens et États d'origine pendant la pandémie," at the 18th Conference of ARIC, Université Côte d'Azur, Nice, 26-29 October 2021.

PAST EVENTS

Between 28/06/2021 and 03/07/2021, Hassan Bousetta taught at the EuromedMig Summer School "Mediterranean Migration Studies: Theoretical and Empirical Research Agenda" at Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona, Spain.

On 25/06/2021, Nives Mazur Kumric presented her co-authored paper "Brexit – An Inquiry into the Socioeconomic Aftereffects from an International and European Perspective" at the Conference on Comparative and International Law. She was also the scientific coordination of the Conference Section on International Law.

On 22/06/2021, Marco Martiniello participated in the plenary session of the Francophone Parliament of Brussels on the hearings on the resolution on the fundamental rights of people of African descent in Europe, as adopted by the European Parliament at its plenary session of 26 March 2019, from the perspective of social cohesion.

On 18/06/2021, the launch of the book "Family Practices in Migration: Everyday Lives and Relationships" took place. Shannon Damery contributed a chapter entitled, "Home without family, family without home: Young migrants' experiences of home and relationships in the city of Brussels".

On 17/06/2021, Axel Gossiaux had a conversation with the painter artist Robin Bodéüs around graffiti, street art, and hip-hop elements during the event Talking Back: Hip Hop Through Research and Practice (Coventry University).

On 15/06/2021, Hassan Boussetta participated as a member of the PhD jury of Mrs Luisa Faustini at the University Pompeu Fabra in Barcelona, Thesis entitled "The Nexus Between EU External Migration Policies and the Democratization of Southern Mediterranean Countries. A multi-layered analysis with Morocco as a case study".

NEWS REGARDING CEDEM RESEARCH AND PROJECTS

First deliverable of the European University of Post-Industrial Cities (UNIC) "Superdiversity in Higher Education Settings: A State-of-the-Art Report". Published online here.

Hassan Boussetta has been appointed as member of the board of ABSP and delegate of ABSP to the board of the International Political Science Association.

Nives Mazur Kumric, this June, was officially included in the pool of legal experts and researchers who will contribute to the extensive 4-year project "DG HOME Legal Compliance Assessment and Legal Consultancy Studies in the Area of Migration and Home Affairs (HOME-2020-AMIF-PR-LECO-0001)". Nives will be responsible for preparing both legal compliance assessments and studies.

Book Chapters

Damery, S. (2021). "Home without family, family without home: Young migrants' experiences of home and relationships in the city of Brussels". In Family practices in migration: everyday lives and relationships, eds. M. Montero-Sieburth, M. R. Giral, & N. Garcia-Arjona. Oxon and New York: Routledge, 103-120. <https://www.routledge.com/Family-Practices-in-Migration-Everyday-Lives-and-Relationships/Montero-Sieburth-Giral-Garcia-Arjona-Eguren/p/book/9780367677251#>

Husson, J.-F. (2021). « Les statuts des imams en Belgique ». In Le statut des ministres du culte musulman en France. Études comparatives et proposition d'une charte nationale, ed. F., Messner. Strasbourg, France: Presses universitaires de Strasbourg, 165-183. <http://hdl.handle.net/2268/259342>

Husson, J.-F. (2021). "Belgium". In Yearbook of Muslims in Europe, Volume 12, eds. E. Račius, S. Müssig & S. Akgönül, A. Alibašić, J. S. Nielsen, & O. Scharbrodt. Leiden: Koninklijke Brill NV, 96-118.

Voivozeanu, A. (2021). "The migration infrastructure of posting: transnational informality". In Labour, Mobility and Informal Practices in Russia, Central Asia and Eastern Europe, eds. R. Turaneva, & R. Urinbayev. Oxon and New York: Routledge, <https://tinyurl.com/y6hzyeft>

Vintila, D. & Martiniello, M. (2021). Migrants' Political Participation beyond Electoral Arenas. In Giugni M. and Grasso, M. (Eds.). Handbook of citizenship and migration. Edward Elgar Publishing, pp 303-316, DOI <https://doi.org/10.4337/9781789903133.00029>

Journal Articles

Bermudez, A. and Cuberos, F.J. (2021). "Colombian-Spanish migrants in London since the Great Recession: political participation and attitudes amid (dis)integration processes." Migraciones, 51, 181-205.

Other Publications

Bermudez, A. (2021) "Informe sobre la diáspora colombiana en Europa y su relación con el conflicto armado en Colombia", ICIP (Institut Català Internacional per la Pau).

Université de Liège

Editeur responsable : Marco Martiniello

Rédaction: Daniela Vintila, Angeliki Konstantinidou, et Basel Adoum.

3, Place des Orateurs - Quartier Agora 4000 Liège (Sart-Tilman) - Tél : +32 (0)4 366 30 40

Site Web : <http://www.cedem.ulg.ac.be>

e-mail : cedem@uliege.be

©Liège - Photo : Georges Kostenjak - Subscribe - Unsubscribe